

Advertising in the Hedge End Gazette

Hedge End Gazette is released Quarterly

Thank you for taking the time to contact Hedge End Town Council, regarding advertising your local business, group or event in the latest issue of the Gazette. This document will outline information relevant to your enquiry.

Hedge End Gazette reaches over 10,000+ households specifically in the Hedge End area. So, this is a fantastic way in which to reach local residents in your community.

As a community magazine it is important what we are sharing is relevant and visually attractive to our readers in our publication. If you would like a little help, then worry not! We are very happy to offer a professional personalized design service as part of your inclusion in the Gazette, for FREE.

*Please note advertising space in the Gazette is limited, space offered is on a first come first serve basis. Local businesses must be based in Hedge End and have local postcode to be accepted.
